

Know Your Rights & Protect Your Health

You have a right to privacy when applying for coverage and at your doctor's office. You can also ask questions about any of your medical bills or seek legal services.

Call Health Consumer Alliance (HCA) for legal advice if you are struggling to get coverage or resolve problems with your health plan. 1-800-896-3203

You have a right to understand your health care visit. You are entitled to a medical interpreter when you see a doctor or a specialist and translated documents in your language. You can also request an interpreter when you receive services, lab tests screenings, or counseling at no extra charge.

When you apply for Medi-Cal or Covered California for yourself, personal information is intended to be used only to determine eligibility. If you are applying for health coverage for another person (i.e. like your child), you do not need to provide any information about your own immigration status. Under current law, using Medi-Cal will not affect your immigration status or subject an individual to becoming a public charge.

Coverage Options for Children and Young Adults

All families in California, including immigrant and undocumented families, have options to enroll in coverage.

Medi-Cal is a no cost or low-cost health program for low-income adults, seniors, pregnant women, foster youth and children. Based on income, the following immigrant populations may also qualify for Medi-Cal:

- ▶ Newly Qualified Immigrants (legal permanent residents for less than 5 years, people granted parole for at least one year, and qualified battered immigrants)
- ▶ Permanent Resident Under Color of Law (PRUCOL)
- ▶ Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients.

Regardless of immigration status, ALL low-income children and young adults, age 0-26, qualify for Medi-Cal. You can enroll in Medi-Cal year-round.

Apply to find out if you are eligible for Medi-Cal or Covered California by calling this number:

Medi-Cal or Covered California:
1-800-300-1506

Covered California is the state health insurance marketplace, part of ACA or Obamacare, where legal residents of California who do not qualify for Medi-Cal can compare health plans and choose one that they prefer. Based on income and family size, many may qualify for financial support. Enroll during Open Enrollment or after a life-changing event, like losing your job or having a baby. You have 60 days from the event to enroll.
